

Welcome To DSUC Online

DIVISION STREET UNITED CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

We believe we are called by God

- to faithfully share our talents and resources with others;
- to grow in our faith and strengthen our knowledge of God's word;
- to worship God in a celebrative and uplifting manner;
- to share our spiritual journey with youth;
- to demonstrate our faith by working with the Church and our communities with a spirit of co-operation and eagerness to welcome others.

KNOX UNITED CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

To be a searching, struggling, growing community

- that seeks God's voice in its present day situation;
- to identify and actively try to meet the needs of those within and outside the community;
- and to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and hope.

ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS EVENTS AT DSUC AND KNOX UNITED CHURCHES

Saturday, December 31st

Taize style New Year's Eve Vigil at DSUC, 7 p.m.

Sunday, January 1st

Worship will begin at both churches (10:30 a.m.) and end at the new church, GEORGIAN SHORES, followed by a New Year's Levee

THE ANNOUNCEMENTS

There will be a Taize New Year's Eve Vigil service here on Friday, December 31st at 7 p.m. This service will be approximately one hour long with time of reflection and song. Please use the parking lot and ramp doors. Everyone is welcome.

The service on Sunday, January 1st will begin 10:30 a.m. at both churches. We will leave both buildings to meet in the parking lot at the professional centre and will return to this building as GEORGIAN SHORES UNITED CHURCH.

Everyone is invited to stay after the January 1st service for a time of food and fellowship in the gym. We will be planting seeds as a symbol of our emerging congregation. Name tags will be available for decorating.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETINGS

Sunday, January 8th to receive Nominations; to approve the JNAC Report; and to elect a Joint Search Committee. This will be held immediately following the worship service.
